

OBA OGUNLANO

OBAOGUNLANO.COM

BIOGRAPHY

OBA OGUNLANO, is pioneering a New Genre of Music as The King Of Orisha Beat Music inspired and influenced by Notable and Revolutionary Musicians of their time - Fela Kuti, Bob Marley, Jazz Singer Omi Aladora. Oba Ogunlano Makes music for the Spirit and the Soul ,

With his many successes which include, but are not limited to, television and movie special appearances (The Originals, Constantine, The Real Housewives of Atlanta, HBO: Bessie Smith), he has studied, performed and toured internationally. With the integration of African culture education, alongside musical performances, dance, choreography, story-telling and costume designs, Oduh has earned the reputation of delivering nothing short of the most electrifying performances, residency programs, clinics and workshops.

Much of his mission is to preserve and spread African culture and traditions that inspire future generations of performing artists within the field of African drum & dance arts. Focusing on arts education and developing integrated learning opportunities for teachers and students, Oba provides professional instruction and artistic support to numerous schools, arts organizations, and dance artists in the United States, Africa, Europe, and the Caribbean Islands.

Album: Destiny Is King

Genre: Orisa Beat , AfroFusion , AfroLatin, Spiritual

LEAD SINGLES:

Omolosa

Else Oka

Olukoso